ANGLICAN CHURCH

List of Property Now Owned by It.

Seventeen Pieces of Real Estate Scattered About the Islands Be- long to this Church.

The growth of a branch of the Church in any country is not only to be estimated by statistics of the numbers in its communion, but by the foothold it obtains through the acquisition of real estate. So long as a congregation is content to worship in buildings which are not owned by the body corporate of the Church, there is no guarantee that it may not at any time be broken up. But let it acquire a local habitation secured for ever to the Church, and whatever vicissitudes the congregation may experience, it cannot be disinherited. Anglican Churchmen should bear in mind, when they look to Canterbury as the Mother of the Anglican Communion, that the grand Cathedral of that city stands on lands conveyed to Saint Augustine by King Ethelbert thirteen hundred years ago. They will then perceive how much the possibilities of the future are bound up with the possession of real estate.

It is proposed in this article to lay before our readers the steps that have been taken in this direction during the present episcopate, that is since 1872. In 1872 the Anglican Church in Hawaii was the owner, in fee simple, of two pieces of real estate:

1—The site (barring the portion abutting on Emma street) on which the Cathedral and St. Andrew's Priory stand, containing 7458 square yards, the gift of H. M. Kamehameha IV. and Queen Emma by deed dated April 29, 1863.

2—A cemetery at Lahaina containing nearly half an acre conveyed by Kamehameha IV. July 29, 1863.

A parsonage and church, which had been built at Wailuku, stood on land only held by a thirty years lease from the Crown Commissioners.

A church had also been built at Kona, Hawaii, on a piece of land which the owner conveyed to the present bishop on his arrival in July, 1872, but subject to a twenty years lease which had been made on October 13, 1871, reserving only a right of way to the church, so that it would be twenty years before the Church could occupy the premises, unless the lease could be bought.

Such was the position of the Anglican Church in Hawaii in the matter of real estate in 1872. Subsequent acquisitions will now be recorded under the years in which they were secured.

3—On July 25th, 1873, the Crown Commissioners gave a deed in fee simple of the land at Wailuku, Maui, referred to above, containing 1.84 acres.

4—On November 20th the late Mr. H. N. Greenwell granted a piece of land containing 7673 square feet adjoining the Kona premises referred to above.

5—On March 23d, 1874, the lease of the Kona land, with dwelling house thereon, was purchased and the Bishop was able to execute a deed conveying the land containing 2 acres, free from all incumbrance, to the Trustees of the Anglican Church, and on April 26th the church and cemetery were consecrated.

6—On December 26th the site of the Church of Holy Innocents at Lahaina, purchased of the late Mr. Henry Dickenson for $600, was duly conveyed to the Trustees and the church was consecrated on January 1, 1875.

7—On June 27, 1876, an addition was made to the Kona premises by the purchase of an adjoining piece of land from John D. Paris, Esq., for $375, containing 2 4-5 acres.

8—On December 7, 1877, a small piece of land intersecting the Wailuku premises was purchased from Kahalehau for $100.

9—On June 16, 1878, the premises of S. Cross, Lahaina, containing 1 acre 33 fathoms, with stone house, dormitory, etc., were purchased from the Devonport Sisters for $900.

10—On May 15, 1879, a piece of land at Honokaa, Hawaii, containing 2 20-100 acres was conveyed to the Trustees by Royal Patent. A portion of this land was consecrated for a cemetery on June 21, 1885.

11—On September 30, 1881, a piece of land containing 1.53 acres was purchased from the Board of Education at Wailuku, Oahu, for $50.

12—On July 24, 1883, the Union Mill Co. of Kohala granted a piece of land at Puehuehu containing 37-100 acre on which the church of St. Augustine was built and consecrated, February 10, 1884.

13—On January 31, 1885, the late Queen Emma made a gift of the addition to the Cathedral site abutting on Emma street, with the house upon it occupied by the Rev. V. H. Kitchin. On this site St. Peter's Church for the Chinese Congregation was subsequently built, and consecrated March 1, 1891.

14—By a deed dated April 7, 1887, a piece of land containing 44-100 of an acre at Makapala, Kohala, was conveyed to the Trustees for $140. On this St. Paul's church for the Chinese was built and consecrated February 10, 1889.

15—By a deed dated May 13, 1887, half an acre at Paaulo was given to the Trustees by Charles Notley, Esq., and the late Theo. H. Davies, Esq. A portion of this set apart for a cemetery was consecrated July 28, 1889.

16—By a deed dated October 9, 1893, from L. Aseu and others, an additional half of an acre was added to the site at Makapala, on which a schoolroom was subsequently built.

17—A deed dated March 11th, 1896, conveyed to the Trustees a lane leading to the premises at Makapala.—Diocesan Magazine.
